7.2 Minimum Intended Module Learning Outcomes (MIMLOs)
MIMLO On completion of this module a learner will be able to:	Related MIPLO #

1. Develop their critical skills, focusing on identifying and selecting appropriate and relevant sources,	3, 5
2. Be familiar with essay writing skills (basic requirements of academic writing; formatting; conventions and submission),	3, 5
3. Understand the principles of academic integrity which will include particular focus on plagiarism and the use of AI generated material.	3, 5

7.3 Indicative Module Content, Organisation and Structure

This module will prepare learners for effective learning in higher education (managing and planning time; Learning styles); and provide them with an understanding of how to effectively use the library's catalogues and databases.

Learners will become familiar with essay writing skills (basic requirements of academic writing; formatting; conventions and submission); and gain an understanding of the principles of academic integrity which will include particular focus on plagiarism and the use of AI generated material.

The structure of the module introduces the learner to the digital world and academic work (digital wellbeing and safety; online searching and researching; using technology for verbal presentations; implications of AI and text-editing tools).

Learners will also begin to develop their critical skills, focusing on identifying and selecting appropriate and relevant sources.

The content of the module will address the programme theme of digital transformation.

7.6 Application of programme teaching, learning and assessment strategies to this module

Lectures will be delivered in two-hour lectures over a twelve-week period, with tutorial support. The lecturer models the skills of exposition, analysis and critique in delivering the content and draws attention to the process. In keeping with the principles of UDL, there are multiple means of engagement in terms of lecture visual aid and resource type on the VLE (audio –visual / apps / podcasts / formative quizzes and asynchronous learning; visual and infographic guides), in addition to hard copy and on-line reading, with lecturer's slides posted the day before so that learners may download in advance, should they wish. Learners ought to engage regularly with the formative Moodle Quiz on 'Referencing and Citation and take the asynchronous learning Digital Skills online badges. There may be an opportunity for learning outside the classroom with guided Library orientation.

7.7 Summative Assessment Strategy for this module

MIMLOs	Technique(s)	Weighting
3	AI exercise:	40%

	Learners are required to analyse and assess an AI generated paragraph on a topic – 500 words. The submission is assessed using the Module’s ‘Assessing AI Generated Material’ Rubric.
1, 2	Annotated bibliography: Linked to an Essay due for Semester 1 submission, this is a bibliographical list of five citations to include books, journal articles and documents presented in the appropriate referencing format. Each citation is followed by a brief (approximately 150 words) descriptive and evaluative paragraph. The purpose of the annotation is to inform the reader of the relevance, accuracy, and quality of the sources cited. The submission is assessed using the Module’s Annotated Bibliography Rubric and should use either the MHRA or Harvard style for referencing, according to their Programme.	60%

7.8 Sample Assessment Materials

Artificial AI exercise (40%)

Sample Choice:

- ‘500 words on the importance of academic integrity when writing an essay’;
- ‘500 words on Aristotle’s view on academic integrity’;
- ‘500 words on Jane Austen and academic integrity’;
- ‘500 words on the value of academic integrity in the workplace’;
- ‘500 words on the relationship between the discipline of sociology and academic integrity’.

Annotated bibliography (60%)

Linked to an Essay due for Semester 1 submission, this is a bibliographical list of five citations to include books, journal articles and documents presented in the appropriate referencing format. Each citation is followed by a brief (approximately 150 words) descriptive and evaluative paragraph.

Marking of assessments will be in line with the Marking Assessment Guidelines as outlined in Section 3.3 of the College’s Regulations in Relation to Assessment and Standards unless otherwise indicated.
