7.6 Application of programme teaching, learning and assessment strategies to this module
Lectures will be delivered in two-hour lectures over a twelve-week period, with tutorial support. The lecturer models the skills of exposition, analysis, and critique in delivering the content and draws attention to the process. In keeping with the principles of UDL, there are multiple means of engagement in terms of lecture visual aid and resource type on the VLE (audio–visual / apps / podcasts / formative quizzes and asynchronous learning; visual and infographic guides), in addition to hard copy and on-line reading, with lecturer's slides posted the day before so that students may download in advance, should they wish. Learners ought to engage regularly with the formative Moodle Quiz on 'Referencing and Citation and take the asynchronous learning Digital Skills online badges. There may be an opportunity for learning outside the classroom with guided Library orientation.
7.7 Summative Assessment Strategy for this module
MIMLOs	Technique(s)	Weighting
3	AI exercise: Learners are required to analyse and assess an AI generated paragraph on a topic – 500 words. The submission is assessed using the Module's 'Assessing AI Generated Material' Rubric.	40%
1, 2	Annotated bibliography: Linked to an Essay due for Semester 1 submission, this is a bibliographical list of five citations to include books, journal articles and documents presented in the appropriate referencing format. Each citation is followed by a brief (approximately 150 words) descriptive and evaluative paragraph. The purpose of the annotation is to inform the reader of the relevance, accuracy, and quality of the sources cited. The submission is assessed using the Module's Annotated Bibliography Rubric and should use the Harvard style for referencing.	60%
